Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said to Him, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life: whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to Him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world."

Forgiveness

By Ann Lankford, Diocese of La Crosse

Each of us probably experiences situations where we have been hurt and need to forgive others. In these circumstances, we can try to forget about the need to forgive, but it becomes obvious that we have not really forgiven a person when we see them & don't want to look at them, or hold back on a conversation. Forgiveness is an extremely important action for our peace of mind, but it is difficult without God's help.

It is noteworthy that when we pray the Our Father, we ask God for forgiveness of our sins in the same measure that we forgive others who have sinned against us. We pray, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." When Jesus taught this most perfect of prayers to the Apostles, Jesus places even greater emphasis on this part of the prayer, when He repeats, "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father also will forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Mt6:14-15). Our forgiveness by God is contingent upon our forgiveness of others.

The as in the Our Father is significant. Jesus made similar comparisons elsewhere: "love one another, even as I have loved you" (John 13:34). "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36). In each case, the perfect love between the Father, Son & Holy Spirit is the standard not only for our relationship with God but also with one another. Jesus wants us to really strive to forgive others when they offend us. Jesus tells us: "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you" (Lk 6:27-28), as Jesus Himself did from His Cross when He said, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do (Lk 23:34).

It is important to make some distinctions about forgiveness:

1. Forgiveness is not passive submission to abuse.
2. Forgiveness does not mean that we must somehow "like" the wrong that is being done to us. Indeed, we can hate the sin that is being committed against us.
3. Forgiveness does mean that we must pray for the grace to separate the sin from the sinner, "hating" the sin, but praying for God's grace to love the sinner. "Love" means here that we make a choice to pray that this person does not go to hell. We pray that he/she would somehow receive God's grace and come to know Him and go to be with Him in Heaven. "Hating" the sinner would mean that we desire that he/she would go to hell, be eternally separated from God. It's important to make the distinction between our feelings and what we choose with our will! Often, if we are honest in regard to the negative feelings we experience, no matter how awful and justified they are, we'll have more freedom to choose the good.
4. Forgiveness means choosing to act in a charitable manner toward the offender, but not "setting ourselves up" for future abuse.

Forgiveness is not easy and is something we must work at. We need to consciously decide to let go of negative feelings whether the person deserves it or not. And yet, we cannot do this without the help of God's grace. Jesus gives us the pledge that, whatever we encounter, His grace will be sufficient for us (see 2 Cor 12:9). We need to cooperate with His grace as we receive His strength to forgive others.

Lent is a perfect time to help ourselves by choosing to forgive. This will mean better physical health through reducing levels of anxiety and stress, even improving sleep. And the choice to forgive will mean improved spiritual health as we become strengthened to forgive more quickly. Jesus wants to heal us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation from our sins of holding grudges or long-term resentment against others so that He can restore our interior peace and joy. Then we will experience a more joyful Easter, understanding better that Jesus truly defeated sin through His Resurrection from the dead.

Some Words About Holy Week

Bishop William Patrick Callahan, OFM Conv.

Every year since my arrival in 2010, I have failed to get a message out to all of you, dear brothers and sisters, concerning the significance of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. I am trying to rectify that situation today by sending some thoughts to deepen your awareness and appreciation for the holiest time of the year in our life of Divine Grace.

Holy Week begins with Passion (Palm) Sunday. The Passion of Our Blessed Lord is read from one of the Synoptic Gospels (this year we hear from Luke's Gospel). The Passion is sung or proclaimed chorally from John's Gospel on Good Friday each year.

The pious custom of our Holy Church finds us gathered mid-week (we have settled for Tuesday) to celebrate the Chrism Mass. The Tradition usually sets this Mass for the morning of Holy Thursday since it marks the institution of the Priesthood by our Blessed Lord. As so many things in our lives have been marked by expediency, we in the Diocese of La Crosse have set Tuesday of Holy Week as our day to celebrate fully and totally the gift of the priesthood. The Chrism Mass unites the entire Presbyterate, Diaconate, and complete Faithful of Christ's Mystical Body with the Bishop at one place, the Diocesan Cathedral, the Mother Church of the Diocese. Gathered around one altar and as one believing community, we celebrate the unity and institution of the priesthood, the Consecration of the Sacred Chrism (used at all Baptisms, Confirmations, and Priestly Ordinations in the Diocese for the coming year), priestly recommitment to their promise of obedience to the Diocesan Bishop, and the unity of the Diocesan and Universal Church with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. The Chrism Mass is the highlight of Diocesan life in union with the universal Church. It is a must for all Catholics to attend at least once in their lives. With that being said, I should point out that none of the ceremonies of Holy Week: Chrism Mass, Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper (Holy Thursday), Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday), Solemn Easter Vigil (Saturday before Easter), are obligatory—that is, you are not obliged to participate as you are on Sundays or Holy Days of obligation. Again, I heartily invite you to attend and participate in the full celebration of the Holy Week services at least once in your life.

Easter—the Solemnity of the Resurrection of the Lord—marks the central mystery of our faith. We commemorate the Resurrection and reaffirm our faith each and every Sunday. So, I wish you the depths of God's Grace for Holy Week and the Abundant Blessings of Easter—I'll see you at Sunday Mass!

Regulations for Fasting & Abstinence

1. Catholics age 14 and older are to "abstain from meat" on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays in Lent, and Good Friday.
2. In addition to abstaining from meat, Catholics in good health, ages 18 to 59, are to "fast" on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday. Fasting consists of eating only one full meal. Two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal is permitted, if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

Monday, April 8th at 7 pm

Viterbo University Concert Choir and 9th Street Singers will perform a free concert in Wausau at Church of the Resurrection

The program will include early music, gospel, folk song, multi-cultural, and contemporary choral works. Viterbo faculty member Brett Robison will be the conductor and faculty member Mary Ellen Hauptert will serve as the accompanist.

The Concert Choir is an integral part of the strong musical tradition of Viterbo University. In bringing audiences a wide range of contemporary and traditional selections, the Viterbo University Concert Choir is regarded as one of the outstanding performing ensembles in Wisconsin university music. The choir sings three major concerts annually and is open to all Viterbo University students by audition. They have toured in Austria, Germany, Hungary, Italy, and in the U.S. The choir is known not only for its rich sound, beautiful blend, and energized tone, but also for its challenging selection of literature and stylistic interpretation.

The Viterbo 9th Street Singers is a select, small (12-18 voices) choral ensemble dedicated to performing classical, jazz, Broadway, and pop repertoire. This ensemble sings several times a year on campus and for local civic organizations. The 9th Street Singers has toured with the Concert Choir in the U.S. and abroad.

Easter Flowers and Candles Donations

Easter flowers or candles can be donated to honor our loved ones (living or deceased). Donations made will be listed in a future bulletin.

When making donations, write on a sheet of paper:

- the name of the person you are honoring
- indicate if you are donating a flower or candle
- your name
- place this information in an envelope along with a donation
- on the outside of the envelope write: "Easter Decorations"
- place envelope in offertory collection at Mass or mail to parish office

You can also donate a flowering plant (in pastel spring colors) and bring to church before 3 pm on Good Friday.

Thank you for donating candles and flowers to add beauty and meaning to the Easter Liturgical Celebration of Jesus' Resurrection!

Did you know that the "Easter Lily" is a symbol of Christ's resurrection, because it rises from a single bulb representing Christ rising from the tomb. An ancient belief was that white lilies appeared where drops of blood fell from Christ's body after the crucifixion. Lighted candles take away darkness and are therefore symbolic of Jesus, "the Light of the world" who brings us new hope when He rose from the dead!!

Share Sunday Next Weekend

Before Mass, please place your donations in one of the large blue "Share Sunday Buckets" that can be found in the transition space in church. The buckets will be carried forward in the Offertory procession. The Circle of Joy thanks you for your generosity in helping them to help those in need!!

God bless you for helping your neighbor!!
